

Physics 267: Problem #9

In one reference frame, two objects with mass  $m$  are traveling towards each other with speed  $v$ . Calculate the invariant mass. Use velocity transformations to transform into a frame where one of the objects is at rest. Show the invariant mass is the same as in the first reference frame. Is the total energy the same in each frame?